Rule Change Intent

Currently, the rulebook is silent in terms of use for divisional judging. This rule change specifies the permitted use for divisional judging. Divisional judging is the selection of judges based on the classes being judged. A different judge could potentially officiate different divisions based on their expertise or qualifications.

SUBCHAPTER PF-12 SHOW CONDUCT

PF155 Grand National Championship Show

1. Specifications

c. Selection of Judges. The selection of the National Show's judging system shall be made for the next National Show at the January Board of Director's meeting and the judges shall be selected at the Spring Board of Director's meeting. The selection of judges shall be made from a list of qualified judges supplied by the Judges and Stewards Committee. Conferencing of judges shall be allowed if desired by the Board of Directors. However, each judge will individually pre-sent their placements on a judge's card. Each judge shall be a Certified judge of the Association and hold a Federation recorded 'r', Registered 'R', or a Guest Judge card. No judge shall be eligible to judge two (2) consecutive Association National Championship Shows. Those judges selected must be in good standing with the Association at the time of selection and at the time of the Grand National Championship Show. Judges that submit their names for consideration to officiate at the Grand National Championship Show will provide a résumé for the Board of Directors through the Judges and Stewards Committee. Divisional judging may be used for the National Show if approved by the PFHA Board of Directors.
